

Nursing, Midwifery and Allied Health Professions Research Training Scheme

SCOTTISH EXECUTIVE

Developed by NMAHP Research Training (Scotland) in partnership with NHS Education for Scotland (NES), Scottish Executive Health Department and the Health Foundation.

Full-time Postdoctoral fellowship full application 2006

Area of research (Indicate the research group that your application has been developed with. See Guide for applicants 2006)

Research Group	University

Postdoctoral project title

Summary of project

Applicant details

Name and title
Full Home Address
Home phone
Full Work address
Organisation
Department
Position
Work Telephone
Work Fax
Work Email
Full contact

details for manager
------------------------	--

Proposed postdoctoral project outline:
(no more than 6 pages in 12 font)

1. Title
2. Background (brief description of what is known in the area of research proposed)
3. Description of key areas of research including:
 - a. A description of the problems you would like to investigate,
 - b. A justification of the importance to patients/service users, health professionals and/ or the NHS).
4. Plan of research activities over the two years of the Postdoctoral fellowship including:
 - a. Indicative research projects (including pilot studies)
 - b. Plans to secure research grants and other research funding support
 - c. Details of planned conference presentations
 - d. Publication plan including professional and peer reviewed and journal papers.
 - e. How you will demonstrate evidence of new and effective collaborations with the NHS and with academics in other nodes.
5. Future research planned beyond the fellowship
6. Statement of the training needs and requirements over the course of the Postdoctoral fellowship
7. Statement relating to future career aspirations
8. Key references
9. Additional relevant information